

We begin our "Holy Days" this week. An entire season focused upon God's goodness to us. Let's use the conclusion of 2021 to align ourselves with God's purposes as never before, laying aside anything which diminishes or hinders our relationship with the Lord.

The healing for our homes, our communities, and our nations begins with our own change of heart.

Morning Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for loving me and calling me out of darkness into Your kingdom of light. Grant me an understanding heart, eyes to see and ears to hear that I may walk uprightly before You. Forgive me for seeing the world through eyes of unbelief, for looking but not understanding. I repent. I choose to walk in a new way, seeing each person as Your creation, each life as valuable. My relationship with You brings status more than my color, wealth, or any other affiliation. Give me a boldness to share the truth so that those around me might know Your kingdom. May Your kingdom come and Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven, amen.

Mid-Day Prayer

Heavenly Father,

I repent of my complacency, forgive me for tolerating things which You have said are intolerable. I choose to walk in the light, to embrace Your truth and live in obedience. I renounce all associations with darkness. I choose Your favor over the approval of anyone else. Deliver me from evil and lead me away from temptation. I forgive anyone who has hurt or harmed me; I release them. Through the blood of Jesus I have been delivered out of the hand of the enemy. Satan has no place in me and no power over me, through the blood of Jesus. Amen.

Proclamation of Faith

God has uniquely blessed us — the best is yet to come.

The earth is the Lord's and everything in it.

He is the sovereign creator of all things.

Nothing is too difficult for Him; His love sustains us.

Jesus, His only son, is our savior, Lord & King.

We live in a season of shaking. God is shaking the earth.

He is restoring the Jewish people and purifying His Church.

If we look at the things which can be shaken, we will be filled with terror.

If we look at the eternal Kingdom of our Lord, we will be filled with anticipation.

Our determination as we gather today is to declare before one another & Almighty God

WE WILL NOT STOP.
